FQ Female Football Week 2023

Awards Criteria

FFW Player of the Year

- Nominee identifies as female
- Shows respect for officials, opponents, team members and embraces the philosophy of fair play
- Is a positive role model for the team and fosters an environment of inclusion, teamwork, and sportsmanship.
- Demonstrates commitment to continuous self-development
- Is a registered player with Football Queensland

Female Coach of the Year

- Nominee identifies as female
- Shows respect for officials, opponents, team members and embraces the philosophy of fair play
- Is a positive role model for the team and leads by example
- Always strives to set an environment and culture that is safe, inclusive and welcoming
- Demonstrates commitment to continuous self-development
- Is a registered coach with Football Queensland

Female Referee of the Year

- Nominee identifies as female
- Officiates at a club, association and/or state level in a paid or unpaid position
- Contributes to the wider officiating community within football as a mentor, instructor and/or positive role model
- Demonstrates focus on improving the game through fairness, integrity, honesty & respect
- Demonstrates commitment to continuous training and learning
- Is a registered referee with Football Queensland

Female Volunteer of the Year

- Nominee identifies as female
- Outstanding achievement in the development and/or delivery of projects and initiatives on behalf of the club
- The extent to which the individual has delivered beyond expectations
- The impact of the work to the broader community
- Is a registered volunteer with Football Queensland

FFW Ally Champion of the Year

- A strong advocate for the promotion of women and girls both within football and within the community
- Working to increase female participation in the game from grassroots to elite pathways
- Committed to ensuring women & girls are represented and play an active role in developing the game
- Demonstrates strong individual and collective leadership to breakdown barriers and stereotypes across the game
- Demonstrates a personal passion for diversity and inclusion through internal and/or public facing programs and projects

Women's Football Club of the Year (State Award Only)

- This club is recognised within their community as leading the way for women in football
- Provides opportunities for women and girls of all ages to get involved as a player, referee, coach or volunteer
- Strong advocates of equality in the game
- Strive to continually grow, nurture and develop women and girls within their club

Football Australia Criteria

Please note the following additional criteria to be eligible for the Football Australia Female Football Week Awards:

Player of the Year
"Involved in the game as a registered player over the last 12 months."

Coach of the Year
"Involved in the game as an employed or volunteer coach for a minimum of 12 month."