Dear Referees,

We are pleased to provide an update regarding the new PlayFootball v2.0 registration system for Queensland participants, including match officials. We understand that some time has passed since Football Australia (FA) mandated the use of this system to collect the National Registration Fee (NRF). Unfortunately, there were delays in the system's implementation in Queensland, which in turn affected our ability to assist match officials with the registration process.

It was essential for us to resolve operational system issues before rolling out the system across the state, and we appreciate your patience during this period. We are now in the process of addressing these delays and are committed to providing the necessary support to ensure a smooth registration experience for all officials.

For many of you who have already registered in Squadi, your next step will be a simple task: completing your 2025 registration by registering and paying the NRF in PlayFootball v2.0. Others may need to register across both platforms (Squadi and PlayFootball v2.0).

To help simplify the registration process, Football Queensland has put together useful resources to assist our match officials, including helpful website links and registration guides.

For those referees who had already paid their NRF in Squadi prior to FA mandating the use of PlayFootball v2.0, refunds have been or will be processed shortly. Referees entitled to a refund will be notified separately.

It is important to note that for the 2025 season, Football Australia has implemented a small increase to the NRF, with the previous fee of $4.00 now increasing to $4.40 (GST Inclusive).

Please note that transaction fees are in addition to the NRF collected.
